TIPS PRODUCE BIG REWARDS IN HOMICIDES

Crime Stoppers works! The volunteer Board of Directors recently approved its second $5,000 reward. They are for confidential tips that resulted in convictions in two Rochester homicides. The tipsters remain anonymous. Rewards UP to $5,000 are paid for information about ANY serious crimes that leads to arrests and convictions. You need only call 423-9300 with your tips. The Crime Stoppers phone is available 24/7.

Thank you - Cathy Chesworth, chairwoman, Crime Stoppers Volunteer Board of Directors

TELL POLICE ABOUT CRIMES VIA ANONYMOUS TEXT MESSAGES

Monroe County is going after the texting generation to help solve crimes. Mobile phone users can now send an anonymous tip through text message about any crime that they have information about. The text will be received by the 311 call center's staff members, who will forward the messages to investigators. Additional questions may be texted to the message sender.

County Executive Maggie Brooks said the texting program, which is part of software named TipSoft, is an additional tool for people to use to report crimes, along with calling 911 and Crime Stoppers. But she said the target audience is the younger generation, such as middle and high school students in the city, many of whom witness crimes every day.

The director of the 911 center, John Merkingler, said the crime tip texts are completely anonymous since the software used for this program gives each cell phone user an alias name when they text program. Investigators can not trace who sent the text message.

Tips may be texted to 274637. In the message, the first word should be: SAFETIP, followed by the tip or message. The cell phone user will then receive a text message that the tip was received and an alias name will be given.
